SOHOGRANDHOTEL

- Description: The design concept of the Soho Grand evokes the evolution of SoHo's architectural heritage over the past 125 years and reflects the stylistic trends visible in SoHo today. All of the materials used in construction are consistent with the existing character of the community. It is the first hotel built in SoHo in more than a century.
- Food & Beverage: The Grand Bar & Lounge offers sophisticated cocktails and cuisine in a relaxed yet glamorous setting. In the lounge, plush furniture, low cocktail tables, chocolate drapes and floor-to-ceiling windows create a luxurious haven overlooking West Broadway. Amber-hued lighting, antique fixtures and weathered mirrors adorn Grand Bar, an intimate wood-paneled club-room. The contemporary American cuisine can be enjoyed in the Grand Bar & Lounge or in the Gallery, a more intimate dining area featuring visionary art installations by New York's avant-garde artists and photographers. During the warmer months visit The Yard, our outdoor eatery, featuring open-air seating and a shaded pergola where guests can dine on summertime favorites.
- Meetings & Special Events: The Soho Grand Hotel offers an array of meeting rooms, restaurants and lounges to host any type of meeting or event. Located on the first level, The Harbor Room and the Yard offer 5,000 square feet of combined indoor and outdoor event space. With floor to ceiling windows, the Harbor Room is airy and open and can be separated into 3 smaller meeting rooms. Connected to the Harbor Room is the Yard, an outdoor space perfect for meeting breaks, catered lunches and private parties. In addition to the newer spaces, the classic Chart Room is Soho Grand's elegant meeting and banquet hall, which can accommodate 80 guests theater style.
